How Can I Try And/Or Purchase a Drelinger Headjoint?

Headjoint tryouts take place when Mr. Drelinger visits a city near you. You are also invited to visit Drelinger's workshop in White Plains which is very near New York City. For an individual tryout session with Sandy Drelinger there is no fee or obligation. To arrange an appointment when Mr. Drelinger comes to an area near you, or at our shop in New York, please fill out the form below. We will also add you to our list so that you can receive updated Headjoint Q&A's as they become available. We do not sell or share this information with any other company.

Once we have this information, we will contact you two weeks prior to our visit to your area to arrange an appointment, or if you want an appointment in our White Plains workshop please phone us directly at any time.
